

Be a Part of the Solution

Student Writing Competition On Alcohol Abuse Issues

Sponsored by
THE INTER-ASSOCIATION TASK FORCE ON ALCOHOL & OTHER SUBSTANCE ABUSE ISSUES
Through funding from Anheuser-Busch Companies

TOPIC: How would you define high risk drinking in your campus community and what approaches would you recommend to best address this issue?

AWARDS: The awards are made to individual students, not the college or university. Each prize will be awarded to the writers who best express their viewpoints on the topic of high risk drinking.

One First Prize - $2,000

Four Second Prizes - $1,000 each

Submission Should Be Created In Op-ed Format:

An op-ed essay is an opinion or editorial type commentary on a specific topic. The American Heritage Dictionary defines "op-ed" as "a newspaper page, usually opposite the editorial page, that features articles expressing personal viewpoints." An op-ed essay expresses more personal views that will promote dialogue, debate, and perhaps, solutions.

- All entries must be in the form of an op-ed essay. No research or term papers should be submitted.
- The op-ed may be developed from any point of view of the issue, a personal experience, an analysis, or an opinion.
- The student is encouraged to raise questions, single out issues, identify dilemmas, and offer suggestions for change.
- The op-ed must be the original, unpublished work of the student.
- The op-ed must be 500-700 words, not including footnotes.
- No name or identifying references may appear on the title page or in the manuscript, since the contest is to be judged anonymously (a numerical code will be put on your essay)

Entry Guidelines

Eligibility:

- Full-time undergraduate student at the time of application.
- Registered during the fall semester of 2001 at an accredited four- or two-year college or university.
